FRASILETTES.

Chow Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. The breeze begin to have quite a winterish tinge.

A number of the Conference delegates left yesterday for their several homes.

The Chattanooga non-partisan citizens party finds it necessary to put up a new municipal ticket about once a week. The nominations made don't generally last longer than that.

The Holston Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will convene tomorrow at Abingdon, Va. The ministers and delegates from this place will most all leave to-night to be in attendance.

D. Giles & Co., of Chattanooga, according to the Times, will begin work this week making the pipe for McDonough & Co. to use in the construction of our water works. There will be about eight miles of the pipe, and it will take about 200 tons of iron to make it.

It is remarked by parties who stay about the depot that there has been a very noticeable falling off in the shipment of chickens from Knoxville during the past few days. Is there anything significant about that? It is expected, however, that there will be a revival of the poultry business now, and all the shipments will be east—as far as Abingdon, Va., at least.

PERSONAL.

Rev. N. G. Taylor, D. D., preached to a large and attentive audience at Church street M. E. Church, South, Sunday at 10 1/2 a. m. The sermon was one of his finest efforts, evincing much thought and systematic preparation. At the conclusion of the discourse, the distinguished preacher warmed up with the genuine eloquence of his palmist days. His flights of oratory were beautiful and grand. The congregation were delighted with the effort.

Rev. Dr. R. S. Rust, of Cincinnati, Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the M. E. Church, after attending the session of the Holston Conference, left on the early train yesterday morning, returning home. Mr. G. W. Ross and wife have returned from a visit of a few days to the family of Gen. Wm. Patrick, in St. Louis.

Mrs. Mary M. Presnell, of Loudon, who has been in the city a few days, attending Conference, left for home on yesterday's train.

Mrs. J. Albert Hyden, of Kansas, who has been on a visit among relatives and friends in Knoxville and vicinity for some weeks, went over on the Maryville train yesterday to extend her visit in Blount county.

Capt. J. Harvey Mathes, of the Memphis Ledger, who has, with his family, spent the summer in East Tennessee, was in to see us yesterday. For the past week or so Capt. Mathes and family and Capt. Jo. M. Greer and family, of Maryville, have been having a splendid time, all to themselves, occupying cottages at the Montvale Springs property. Mr. Wilson, the assignee of the property, is also there yet with his family.

Deputy Marshal G. Larkins returned Sunday night from a trip to Rhea county. He took in the Tennessee Valley Fair.

From Sunday's Second Edition.

Rev. W. W. Bays' Farewell.

Rev. W. W. Bays, the zealous and devoted pastor of Broad Street M. E. Church, South, today closes his four years of effective labor at that Church, and will to night deliver a farewell discourse to his congregation. By the rules of the Conference a pastor can not be kept at one charge longer than four years at one time, and this is what deprives the Broad Street congregation of the ministry of Mr. Bays. During the four years he has been among them Mr. Bays has labored with great zeal and efficiency, both in a ministerial and pastoral sense, as will be testified to by not only the immediate congregation, but many frequent visitors. That charge has been wonderfully built up under his ministry, and no doubt a vast amount of good accomplished. There is perhaps not to be found anywhere else, a congregation where their pastor is so universally loved and esteemed, and the longer he remains the more he is thought of. They are consequently, and justly so, very loth to part with him, and his place will be extremely hard to fill.

In Districts Formerly Ravaged.

By fever and ague, immunity from the dread disease is enjoyed by those who have rendered their systems malaria proof with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the best preventive and remedy. Quinine can not compare with it in efficacy, and is a bitter and disagreeable medicine. The Bitters for its remedial and refreshing properties and the latest analysis reveals nothing in the composition of a deleterious nature. It does not deteriorate, is an agreeable cordial as well as a potent medicine, and when mixed with weakish or unwholesome water neutralizes its harmful qualities. The citizens of many a malarious locality, not only in the United States, but the tropics, regard it as an invaluable medicine, and in homes of families it is kept constantly on hand. As the time of emigration approaches farther west, the demand for it among those who are compelled to encounter the vicissitudes of climate, constantly increase.

More Fine Stock Coming.

The whole country seems to be aroused on the subject of the approaching Fair to be held here the last week of this month. We learn that not less than four States will be represented in the exhibition ring and on the track.

Fast horses are coming in and many stalls on the grounds are already filled. The rain has settled the track, and it is now in the best condition we have ever known it. Scores of running and trotting horses are exercised on the track daily, and the greatest interest is manifested. With fair weather, which we will doubtless have, the Fair will be a grand success, and the immense crowd will go home satisfied that Knox county ought to have a Fair every fall, as she will in future.

Never Returns.

It is said that one out of every four real invalids who go to Denver, Col., to recover health never return to the East or South, except as a corpse. The undertakers, next to the hotel keepers, have the most profitable business. This excessive mortality may be prevented and patients served and cured under the care of friends and loved ones at home, if they will but use Hop Bitters in time. This we know. See other column.

ATLANTA FAIR.

WHICH IS CHEAPEST.

A package of Dr. Price's Extract, containing twenty-five cups of the best smoking tobacco made, or one common cigar. Each costs ten cents.

Shooting Tournament.

Let it not be forgotten by the sportsmen in upper and lower East Tennessee, that among the many attractions that will be offered to the visitors at our approaching Fair, will be a grand shooting tournament at birds and glass balls. A splendid English B. L. shot gun (cost $125, importer's price) will be the first prize in the bird shooting. This gun is well worth the attention of any sportsman, and the man who wins it will carry off a rich prize. It is a new gun, made by one of the most popular makers, and has every modern improvement desirable. The entrance fee for this contest will be only $5.00. A sufficient number of birds have been engaged. The glass ball shooting will, also, be very interesting. We are satisfied that, while Knoxville has many fine shots, upper East Tennessee will be well represented in the Deadericks and others, of Jonesboro, and Dr. Berry and his friends, from Bristol, and Virginia will send some of her field shots to contend for this prize. What of Chattanooga? Where is Burton and De Long and a half dozen others? Can't you all come, boys? You will have fine opportunity to display your marksmanship. Come and try. The shooting will take place at the Fair ground, at 1 a. m., Friday, Oct. 30.
